“ *I would like to send my condolences to Jim, Julie & Michael & family.
I worked with Carol at General American for quite a few years. She was the most caring and sweetest person you would have the pleasure of knowing. She was always there to lend an ear and give you so many encouraging words when you needed it. I will always remember our luncheons when we would get together after retirement. Carol earned her wings here on earth. I can see her smile as she entered into the gates of heaven. God bless you sweet Carol. I will never forget your kindness!*

“ I'm so sorry to learn of Carol's passing. We worked together at General American. She was the Admin for our department and she took wonderful care of all of us. I loved our chats as she always provided good counsel and a kind word. We should all aspire to be as kind as her.

“ I just saw this. I've known Carol since our days at GA. We always made each other laugh. Over the years we would get together for lunch here and there. I'll always miss Carol. See you on the other side. Love you.
