“ Carol always put a smile on my face when I saw her. We laughed at strange things, often at the absurdities of life. She called me Annie, which made me feel loved and special. Carol was a shining light - giving gardening advice and sharing pictures of her great-granddaughter. Her face lit up while showing off her pictures. I will miss Carol so much, along with all her friends who will miss her every day! With love - Anne Bedwinek
