“ Carol and George lived next door to us at our first home on Daniels Drive. Carol was a good neighbor and I have fond memories of us going to garage sales together. She was a hard worker, working at Chrysler and taking care of her home and family. I remember how she liked to crochet and work on other projects, and how happy she was decorating the new kitchen and bedroom addition that George added to their home. I even remember that we canoed over to their house during a spring flood and colored Easter eggs with their family! I was so happy for her when they moved to higher ground and escaped the river flooding. Rest in peace, Carol!
