

Carol A. White

December 21, 1953 - March 7, 2022

No mother in the world can be as proud of their children as I am of mine. They all fought the worst battle of anyone's life and hit it head-on.

This is the last time I'll get to speak on earth, even though through someone else, I still get the last word (LOL).

I want to thank each and every one of you for the love and kindness you have given me. You had a tough job and succeeded. Go through life holding your heads high. Not too many people do that for their parents. I love you all.

Thank you very much, the time we had together helped me find my way to peace.

I also want to thank my sons for taking good care of my girls. I guess that was the easy part. The hardest part was putting up with me. That deserves a gold medal!

Robby, it's sad to say, but no more hot salsa, sorry! ☐

To each and every one of my grand- and great-grandchildren: I love you all so much!! You are all so wonderful!!

Just think of happy thoughts, like when I beat you in aggravation and other games. It shows you have good character! I love you all so very much!

Xoxoxo

Ken!! You have been a brother to me. Very close to Roy and myself. You were always respectful of other and no one can ask for a better friend than you. You were not only a good friend to my family, you are my family! May God be with you and watch over you! Love you!

Life goes on, and I want you to continue knowing I'm not gone, but right by your side guiding you and protecting you.

God bless you all! Momma.

“ My Mom, wow this woman was amazing, strong, a fighter, forgiving, loving, caring, a warrior! You tell her she couldn't do something she is doing it to prove you wrong, you need something she will hand it over to you. Her passion was spending time with her husband and her children, spending time with my kid's (6pm her grand children) mom loved playing games with them, teaching them how to read and helping them with their homework. Her favorite book to read with them was the Wonky Donkey, she laughed so hard reading it she cried. Our mom loved playing cards Canasta was her favorite card game unless playing with my kid's then it was crazy 8's. Monopoly and aggravation were her favorite board games to play with my children, she didn't show any mercy on them either she played to kick ass and that's exactly what she done too. Our mother was beautiful inside and out she didn't know a stranger and everyone who knew her loved her. My dearest Mother, you will be missed, loved, and thought of every single day. Fly high mamma until we meet again.

“ This woman was something else!! She was full of laughter. Always telling jokes, making people laugh. Caring of everyone who she crossed paths with. Her favorite thing to do is beat our asses in games. He had no mercy on anyone and would just laugh her ass off when she beat us in games. Lol. I will certainly miss those times. I will always love and miss you.

Sincerely

Your First Born Della White
