Carol never knew a stranger. She had the “gift to gab”. Her love of her husband of 61 years, her family, her grandkids and babies was never ending. She loved singing to and holding her babies! Throughout the years, during and after running the office of Eaton Custom Carpet Service, Inc. for 30 years, she enjoyed her family the most. She was a devoted wife, an excellent cook and an avid reader. She had an amazing green thumb, loved to travel, crochet and sew. She and her husband encouraged community involvement and followed their kids and grandkids in all their endeavors in the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, 4-H Horsemanship, Meramec and Northwest Football, NWAA softball, Northwest Band, Northwest Ice Hockey and Northwest Cross Country. At one time they belonged to the local CB Club and the White Oaks Bowling League. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.
