

Cecil W. Armstrong

April 3, 1957 - May 13, 2025

Cecil W. Armstrong, passed away Tuesday, May 13, 2025 at age 68. Loving husband of Chris Armstrong (nee: Feldmeier); devoted father of Adam (Amy) Armstrong and the late David Armstrong, cherished grandfather of Brayden Armstrong, Kenzie Armstrong, Chase Armstrong, Sara Hoffman, and Grace Hoffman; dear brother of John (Laura) Armstrong and Mark (Tina) Armstrong; dearest step-father of Cathy (Tim) Hoffman, Tina Cibulka (James Petrovic); and beloved uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend to many.

Cecil was born on April 03, 1957 in St. Louis, Missouri to Johnny and Carolyn Armstrong, who have preceded him in death. He worked more than 48 years as an automotive technician for Union Weber Car Care before he retired.

Cecil loved to play Washers and Cornhole, or "Bags" as he referred to it. He could usually be found listening to music or playing his drums, and he enjoyed all genres of music. In his younger years, he liked to go bowling and was known to get a few Turkeys in his day!

As an outdoorsman, Cecil always enjoyed his lake property, going boating, and driving his side-by-side. He also liked watching football and cheered on the Kansas City Chiefs. He had a good sense of humor and was well loved by everyone. He loved his grandchildren so much and always looked forward to spending time with them and watching his boys play sports.

Cecil was dearly loved and will be missed by all who knew him. “ To Adam & Chris & families:
I was saddened when I heard about Cecil. Ed & I were on the road to Branson. Cecil & I went back a long time ago; we were 16 when we met. He was fun to be around & he loved KISS & Supertramp! Through the years, each time I heard a song from those bands, I always thought of Cecil & I always will. He was always a good guy, a good mechanic & a fabulous friend to me. One night in 1979, when my 1st husband Joe was deer hunting, someone broke into our house at 2:00AM. I was so scared & called Cecil. After he calmed me down, he told me to drive over & the coffee would be ready. That's the type of friend he was to me, for years. If & when I needed him, he was there. He was a kind & caring man & I will miss him. RIP, Cecil. I love you. Till we meet again. Kathy Hegger

“ Some of my most cherished moments were spent with Cecil teaching me to play drums. Although I could be hard headed at times he stuck with me week after week! Love that man!

“ Cecil, my heart is broken. Brayden, Kenzie and Chase have spent the entire day talking about all of their favorite memories of you. You always made them feel special, loved and on top of the world. You weren't supposed to leave us this soon. Please watch over them and your boy. We need so many signs as we navigate life without you. I promised you that I would take care of Adam, and I will do everything in my power to help him through this loss. We love you so much. Until we meet again.

Cecil and I were cousins in another life! He was always smiling and such a gentle soul! It's been years but those old memories never fade like the memory of his smile. My condolences to his family and especially Adam my thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Cecil thank you for welcoming Amy with open arm into your family. He told me he had been waiting for a daughter and finally got one. The next time he said that is when we where waiting for the triplets to be boring and he was so excited when his boys arrived, Brayden and Chase but when Kenzie arrived he said I finally got my baby girl.. The triplets all had a special bond with him. Chris my heart is sad for you he love you so much. Prayers to you all!

Cecil had always been special to my family. I have known him for over 50 years. He was blessed with two sons whom he loved and cared for. I'm so happy Cecil found Chris. He deserved so much happiness. Adam became a wonderful man and Cecil was so proud of him. His grandchildren were the light of his life. I will miss you and hope you and John are together.
