“ So sorry to hear this. Ceola took care of our family, the Weis's, for many years. She was amazing and so loving. She could also dish out a stern order or two! She would clean my brother's and my face after lunch using a wash cloth, but then she'd run it through my brothers hair! 😍 She and Willard were such great people and enjoyed when they came over for a visit. Much love to the Bock kids and all her family. She was a gem 🙏❤️

“ It was an honor to know both Willard and Ceola. We always tried to sit near them at church. To coin a phrase from a song... she could light up a room with her smile! There is no doubt that Heaven opened it gates to both, and there is one happy reunion going on! Both she and Willard are greatly missed here!

“ *My dear friend, Ceola:
I thank you for the countless times you were there to support and encourage my family and me. We laughed together, cried together, prayed for each other and our families. You left a legacy of what it means to be a Christian lady. You loved your church, friends and family. Every conversation we ever had somehow included our families and you always spoke of your family with love and devotion. Sue and Janie you are wonderful daughters. I know you will miss your Momma, but if sadness comes, remember how faithful you were to care for her and remember her smile and sweet mischievous giggle.
I will miss our phone visits but I will always have loving memories. Love to each of you and God's Blessings. Lois J. Rigel and children*

“ One of the funniest things I have ever heard at a Bock Family Reunion: "You haven't lived, till you've been married to a Bock". That quote and fond memories of Aunt Ceola will be cherished for generations.

“ Aunt Ceola was just a jewel of a person. She was always positive and loved the family reunions. At the last Bock family reunion she attended, she asked for the microphone and said to everyone's applause....."You haven't lived, till you've been married to a Bock".

It was towards the end of the festivities, but it will be something we all will remember.

Aunt Ceola was a gift to us all and will be deeply missed.

May you rest in peace, and watch out for those big Bock reunions up there.
