“ It truly saddens me to find out years later, that the only Dad I've ever known and loved has passed away. 🥺💔 My Mother (Frankie) And Charlie were married July 13th 1974, and The following year April 25th 1975 our mother And Charlie was granted a Decree of Adoption for each of us children and our names changed from Stoner to Dacus. Let the good times begin, in which they did. The Dacus family are very fun, talented and very unique group. Always a lot of love and fun... and for whatever reason we went separate way, Charlie never lost touch with us and us with him. That is with me until 2010, when my 19yr old Son was brutally beaten to his death by some town bullies. And still no justice, Charlie would call me, especially on my birthday, but i'm the one who has pulled away

I did what I could to contact Charlie when my Mother died February 28th 2016, but I never did find him and that was the first time in all these years. He had always been able to find, I'm sorry I missed being able to share closure with family and friends on his final day, AMORE TO YOU DAD 🥺💔 and Thank-you for making our family complete, I will keep you in my heart forever...❤️ I love You..... your Daughter Karen Langston- Dacus... 🙏🙏
