“ Aunt Darlene, My love and prayers are with you and the boys ALWAYS. Not too many people in this world have been lucky enough to share a love like you and Uncle Charles has. You are both the "better half" of the other. I have many memories of great times celebrating life, holidays, and family with both of you. I am praying for peace and comfort for you and the family. Love, Mae Bright

“ Darlene: Our sympathy to you and the family. Dad & Mom thought the two of you were the greatest. You and I have been friends since 1953 and we will always be friends. As you face the tomorrows without Charles, do not forget he is looking down on you, and I know with love. Much love from us, Reva & Don Honea
