“ Charlotte was always smiling whenever I saw her. She made me feel loved right off the bat; from the first time I met her at my bridal shower Then at my wedding to Mr. Terry Brooks she met my parents and really made a lasting impression; especially on my dad! He would always ask me about Charlotte after that first meeting. She was so kind to my parents who at the time were a little out of their comfort zone due to the era when Terry and I got married!!! You know in 1987 interracial marriages were not as common as they are today so Charlotte helped break the ice for sure!!! I will surely miss this sweet, loveable lady. God bless you and my condolences. Martha Brooks
