Tribute Wall

“ Grandma Chris, I love you so much and I am so heartbroken you are gone.
Since I came into Brian's life, you have always been there for me and have always loved me. I am beyond grateful for all the memories we got to have with you and they will always be in my heart to cherish. I'm grateful that you are their great grandma and they will always know the love you had for them.

“ I have many fun memories of all the Christmas and New Years we spent together but best time was when we went to Yellowstone together with my husband and daughter.... You had so much fun, seeing the bison in the badlands, seeing Devils Tower from miles away, and visiting the 4 president... I will miss you each and every day. May you soar with the Angles.
