She gave all that she could to her family, friends, and even strangers. Her strong personality didn't always match with her small frame, but that never held her back. Stories and laughter will always stick with the ones she touched. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all those who knew and loved her.

“ *Dear Pat & Family,
Some of my favorite memories are of our yearly New Years Eve celebrations at Casa Gallardo. Our High Ridge Elem. group would meet when Casa opened & often stay into the evening. Pat & Cindy would be there & it was a wonderful celebration of partying & catching up with everyone.
We loved Cindy & she was so much a part of our group.
She will be greatly missed, but we feel blessed to have known her.
May God give you strength and courage in the days to come. 💕🙏
🙏🙏*

“ So many good memories of our summers together growing up. She was such a loving little girl and made me want to be a good big sister. With the folks working she was always by my side helping me get things done around the house. Her, Marsha and I shared a bedroom and I can still remember her squeezing my hand and talking softly until she fell asleep. And our trip to western Kansas and riding horses. Her and Marsha fell off. She was skinned up but tough and brave. Led the horses back for me while I carried Marsha. When I had surgery one summer she insisted on staying with me at the hospital. I was blessed to have her as a little sister.
