“ My Mother was the glue of our family. When I became older I called my Mom, Clare Baby". It was affectionate and she loved it. My Mother never drove so I along with 2 Cantwells, my Brother Booby and whoever's else we could jam in my car took off for CBC. My Dad despised taking my Mom shopping, groceries and clothes. Let's get one thing straight, I was a smart cookie.y Mom first filled my gas tank and allowed me to throw whatever I wanted in the cart! And clothes shopping, forget Target, Clare Baby and I were headed for Frontenac Plaza, I liked wearing nice clothes and God Bless you Mom. You were honest, tough and took care of us all. RIP. Eddie
