“ I only just recently found out about Cliff's passing from my Papa Johnston. We used to go to the Fountain Grill for breakfast with Cliff. I will never forget when my dad took my out of school to have lunch at McDonald's and when we got there, Cliff was there. I told my dad my friend was there and he sat with us for a minute for brunch. I believe I even made sure to get breakfast to keep the tradition of breakfast with Cliff. I wouldn't be surprised if I still have some of his lifesaver mints in my purse as well.

“ So sorry to hear that Cliff passed. Although I hadnt seen or talked to him in years I thought of him on occasion. My husband Dave Washburn (who passed away in 2014) was very good friends with Cliff. The memory I remember most about Cliff is the time my husband Dave, Cliff and Jack Northcutt got on a plane and went to las vegas in their uniforms. Boy were they in trouble.. Rest in peace Cliff. Say hello to Dave and Jack for me

“ Cliff wants said his dad worked at the Postal Service for 30 years and was retired for 30 years until one day I was telling the story and he corrected me and said his dad was retired 30 years when he was telling me the story but his dad was retired a lot more than 30 years.
