“ Cliff Roll

“ Cliff was one of my favorite people I ever met. A contagious laugh and great sense of humor backed up by a spirit we need more of to keep the world a better place. I remember his huge smile when he took his helmet off and the "On track" action stories after the days events. Even when we might have exaggerated some of those stories his version was usually the most entertaining. I know his spirit is with us. Without realizing this sad news, I was telling racing stories about Cliff to the guys at work on the 20th with some of his famous colorful quotes.

Unfortunately we did not hear about Cliff's passing until the day after the service. Please accept our sincerest apologies for not being there to pay our last respects. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Roll family.

*With deep sorrow,
Mark and Tonya Horne*

“ Cliffy was a very special person to our family. We all liked to sit around the camp at Happy Hour sharing stories and eating our snacks. We had a lot of wonderful times. I know that he will be fishing in that great lake in the sky and he will catch a whopper.. He will be greatly missed. Condolences to Sharon and the family. Love you Cliffy.
