“ Connie was the best thing that ever happened to me when she came into my life. Even though her obituary has her last name as Cave, it was really Serwatka as we were still married when she passed away. I don't know why her family put her down as Cave. The only thing I can think of is that they did not like me. Even though they pretended to. I feel very sorry for them and I pray that God will forgive them for what they've done.

“ For everyones information,Connies last name was Serwatka,not Cave. The headstone has been incorrectly inscribed by her sister.It should read Connie Serwatka as we were still married.
