Connie was a fun loving, multitalented, and all-around good person. She was a huge people lover and never met a stranger. In the 70's she decided to become a songwriter. Once the songwriting fizzled the 80's came where she found her love for painting ceramics which just about everyone in the family has a piece of. In the 90's she discovered her love for crocheting and scrapbooking, after that her love for crafting never ended. Bowling was something little on the side she enjoyed. Though she is gone, her family will forever have her friendly eyes and shimmering smile in their hearts. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

A funeral service will be held at Chapel Hill Mortuary-Cedar Hill on Tuesday, February 1st at 2PM. Visitation from 1 PM until the time of service. Interment at Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens.

“ My sweet Granny, oh how I will miss you! I was the only grandchild to call you Granny and you will always be my Granny. I will always remember your laugh. I still have the VHS that you recorded Mama's Family on. I still have and wear a shirt that you bought for me when I was a young kid, it still makes me smile. It is a St. Louis diner shirt that was all about roadkill. It was funny. I love and miss you! Tell Grandpa, Newton, Gram and Pop that I love and miss them as well.

You were a very kind and thoughtful Mother-In-Law. I appreciated how complementary you were whenever you came to the house for dinner. I will miss seeing you during the holidays. Your faith has given us comfort at this time. I was blessed to have such a faithful servant of the Lord as a Mother-In-Love. Love, Jackie
