“ Uncle Curt was a character. On one hand, a hard living outlaw sort of guy but on the other a kind and caring soul who was great with kids. My favorite part of visiting Missouri had grown to be staying with Aunt Laura and Uncle Curt. They were the first people I'd call and the only call I'd ever have to make because the answer was always yes.

Most of the trips were spent exactly the same. Curt would have coffee ready before we woke up. We'd pour cup and meet him on the back porch, and many of those days we'd spend right there all day til late in the night talking about everything and nothing all at the same time.

Visiting just won't be the same without him.
