“Jeremy, Jason & Doug,
I am truly sorry to hear of Dale's passing. Like your mother Kathy, Doug, Aunt Karen and Uncle John, I too attended Holy Innocents with Dale. Dale and I were close friends from kindergarten thru high school. We played baseball from first grade thru eight grade with your Grandfather Mel as our coach. We were Cub Scouts together with your Grandmother Dolores as our Den Mother and later as Boys Scouts, again with your Grandfather Mel as our Troop Leader. Together we played a lot of baseball in Tower Grove and "fuzz ball" in the Holy Innocent's School playground. Although we went to different Catholic High Schools, we always hung out together. After high school, Dale joined the Navy for 4 years. I went to college and got drafted into Army. During those years we corresponded by letters. (Long before texts, emails and Twitter). I got out in July 1974 and almost immediately your Grandmother Delores ask if I would be a groomsman in your parent's wedding. (Dale was somewhere in the Navy at that moment.). It was a privilege to be in the wedding. Strangely after the wedding, your father and I drifted apart. I relocated to Arizona and we rarely communicated. I have a lot of great memories of your father and grandparents. The Jones Family were an important part of my young life. I would like all of you to just remember the good times you shared with Dale. I will miss him. And, I'm sure all of you will miss him dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Involved in grade school sports together. Baseball. Dale was 1 yr.older than me. We went to a high school across south St. Louis. Took two busses each way everyday. His bro' Doug joined the bus rides a year later. Went out on weekends with Dale and friends, (when he wasn't on a date with his high school sweetheart). Had some memorable times together. Hooked up with Dale just a couple years ago. Hadn't seen nor heard of his whereabouts in many years. Glad we got reacquainted. Will be remembered.

“ Rest in Peace Uncle Dale.
It has been a long time since i saw you last but I remember you were always kind to me when I was young. You showed me things I was interested in learning about. And you allowed me to enjoy my time during visits. I appreciate you for being a fun uncle at that time of my life.
Jeremy and Jason, I am here for you both at any time. I am sorry for your loss.
