“ Dale was very close to his father and mother. He would do anything for his mother and father and not charge them a penny. His father Glen was his best friend and buddy. And no one could match his mother in his eyes. He was more than generous to the family. He was my and my late husbands friend for many years. I've seen the serious side of him and the fun side. He used to call me his secret girlfriend, a standing joke as I am 15 years older than him. :)

I have his picture in my album, from when he was in the service, to remember him.

Dale was very special. I have never met anyone like him.

May he rest in peace.
