“ Darlene baby sit with our children as they were growing up. They went to the same church as we did and her parents and us Bowled together for many years. We lost contact with the family when moving away from the area but thought of them a lot. She will be sadly missed by all. Such a beautiful life to lose but its Heavens gain. Rest in peace Darlene.

“ It has been my great privilege in life to come to know Darlene as well as her family. Even though I didn't see her very often, I so enjoyed our times together and she always made me feel special. I shall always remember the kindness and love she showed to my children and I after the passing of my husband. Her generosity was boundless. Sadly, she was taken away too soon, but she will remain forever in our hearts.
