“ David was (is) my brother-in-law. Legally, that’s what he is but he was most definitely the best brother that I could ask for. A few years ago, Adam took my Siberian Husky “Shadow” out to use the bathroom. When he came back inside (reason unknown) he started having a seizure. Within minutes he died right there in front of Adam. We were heartbroken. Immediately David came up to our house (it was like 11:30 at night) covered our dog up and took him away handling all of the necessary arrangements that come with the death of a dog. He did this so we wouldn’t have to. He also said he did not want his niece Carly to wake up and see Shadow like that. I could tell you a thousand stories similar to this. It’s who David was. He would do anything for his family and couldn’t stand to see them hurting. Thank you for showing me what it’s like to have a real brother. I love you and I miss you already❤️.
