This special young man so meek and mild

Was Heaven's very special child

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss. Our thoughts & prayers are with you & your family. Nick left this world after fighting a long courageous battle against a very unfair & horrible disease that eventually took his life. He is the most courageous young man that I have ever known. He will forever be with you & you will always have the memories that you made together. He will be the angel sitting on your shoulder watching over you from heaven above. We will truly miss Nick more than words can say.
