“ I worked with Dean as a Resident Manager at Tower Lake/SIUE many decades ago. It was my first professional job after college. Dean and I shared week day duty night (Tuesdays if my memory is right) and was it a learning experience for both of us - actually, for the entire team. Through our various challenges, Dean always remained calm, insightful and thoughtful. He never lost his cool. I am sorry to hear of his passing but know he made a lasting impression as someone who was a force for good. So very sorry for your loss.

“ I use to work with Dean on the Reference Desk at SIUE Lovejoy Library. He was such a kind soul. I always enjoyed listening to him tell about his family, the animals he fed near his house and all the wonderful recipies he prepared. He was truly one of a kind and I know will be missed by many. So sorry for your loss. I will keep you all in my prayers.

God Bless,

“ *Dear Sue,
My deepest sympathy for the loss of Dean.
He was a great husband & friend. He was so giving & thoughtful.
Sue, you will no longer be able to see him...but you will know that he is with you in the garden as you fill the bird feeders & he may be the wind beneath your hair. He will live on in our hearts forever.
Lots of Love & Deepest Sympathy,

“ Rest in Peace, Dean--terrific husband, wonderful father, excellent pie baker, devoted dog lover, beloved friend. It has been an honor to know you. One of my most treasured memories is having the privilege of being in your wedding party and one of the 17 people on your honeymoon cruise. You are irreplaceable, but you will live on in many, many hearts!
