“ The picture you posted is the Dee I remember. She leaves behind a very loving and embracing family. Dee had always been there for her family, they all came through for her and John during their rough years and ultimately until the end.

Dee's stories of her everyday life were told with her wit and honesty, nothing was off limits, some of the events were probably dire when they happened but when Dee talked of these events it was hilarious! I can vividly see and hear her telling these stories.

Dee was the star at Penny & Dave's home on Christmas Eve. She receive hugs and kisses from everyone there, even the great grandkids made their rounds. Her obit mentioned she liked TV, she really perked up when the movie "Christmas Vacation" came on, she knew it well and told me what would happen next. Dee's voice was weak but her wit was not, she could still come up with witty comments through out the night!

Dee leaves behind a great void, but her legacy of dedication, love to God and her family is much greater. You were loved and will be missed.

“ Dee was so forgiving to everyone. She had such a big heart. She was so talented in many ways. We will miss her, I'm sure she's happy to see John and Deneise as they are her.
