“ I am Charles Scheel's next to oldest daughter. We were all childhood friends. Our families would get together often in Red Bird. We had hayrides, visiting often. Dennis was more like Donna with his sweet smile and he never met a stranger. He will always be remembered with love. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family at this trying time.

“ To all of Dennis's family,
None of you know me--I am a daughter of Ralph & Millie Scheel--my Dad was a first cousin to August Scheel (your Grandpa). The Scheel cousins were one great group---lots of fun because there were so many of them! I remember Dennis and his brothers well. What a great family Dick & Donna had! You have my sincere sympathy in this loss. I have a feeling the good memories he left will sustain you ---keep those memories close to your heart. We are all thinking of you and if we were close by we would be there to support you.

Sincerely,
Kathy (Scheel) O'Day
