

Diamond Dave Miller

October 30, 1945 - September 5, 2020

Miller, Diamond Dave, of Cedar Hill, Missouri was born October 30, 1945, in Evanston, Illinois, to Russell and Catherine (nee Wissman) Miller and entered into rest, Saturday 5, 2020 at the age of 74 years.

He is preceded in death by, his parents and sister Elizabeth Miller,

He is survived by,

his wife, Deborah Gallagher of Cedar Hill, Missouri, brother, James (Darlene) Miller of Deerfield Beach, Florida, and many other family and friends.

Diamond Dave is known for having the worlds shortest, fastest Top Fuel dragster, which is now at Don Garlits Museum of Drag Racing in Ocala, Florida. He was a jack of all trades and could do anything he set his mind to. Diamond Dave will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Family and friends can review and share stories, photos and condolences online at www.stlfuneral.com and follow details of this event and others in the community at www.facebook.com/stlchapelhill.

Tribute Wall

“ Dave was our 2nd cousin, us Smiths we were from Park Ridge I member as a young kid in 75' or 76' watching Dimond Dave run that railcar at local tracks. I believe Dave was eary lead in fuel changes to 392 Hemi motors that set new time records. Dave's mom helped me get rid of my east coast twang speech. Rest in Peace. Wonderful family.

Richard Smith - May 18 at 09:35 PM

“ Diamond Dave Miller

January 06, 2023 at 10:46 PM

“ Deborah - I just ran across this very sad news of David. I am so sorry for your loss. I will try to reach out to you through another avenue.
- with sympathy,
Donna Butenhoff (was Tucker)

Donna Butenhoff - October 14, 2021 at 12:27 AM

“ Please watch the following YouTube video. It shows Dave's finest moment in drag racing. He loved drag racing. https://youtu.be/Fi6mEM_4yWg

John Villella - September 15, 2020 at 08:37 PM