“ Uncle Don, you were more than an uncle to me. You were a father and friend. Some of the best memories of my childhood were from times with you. I love you and miss you but it would be so selfish of me to not feel comfort in knowing you are in a much more beautiful place and pain free. Thank you for all of the times we shared and the many blessed memories I hold so dear. Aunt Georgia, Karen, and Darren, I love you all and I hope you all find peace from knowing the legacy Uncle Don has left through you, me, my children, and the many children, friends, and family that Don has touched with his heart of gold. We love you guys and our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Luke, Kelli, Caden, Allyson, and Natali
