“ Hours on the phone arguing over anything and everything we could, seeing all the movies we could in a single day, fixing random things that we both knew I could of just YouTubed but wanted to hang out with you, to you being my phone call when I had messed up. You were always more than just my uncle. You stepped in so many ways for those around you. I love you.

He was the greatest uncle my kids could of ever hoped for. He will be deeply missed.

I had the pleasure of meeting Don through my husband, as they worked together. He was a genuinely kind and generous person, always willing to lend a helping hand. He frequently spoke about how proud he was of his daughter. Don will be truly missed, our thoughts and prayers are with the family.
