“ Junie,
I was so shocked to see Dorie's obituary in the Sunday paper. Kathy and I are so sorry. I can remember the family barbeques at Mur and Granddaddy's, a Christmas at your Mom and Dad's and Thanksgivings at our Mom and Dad's. Please know you are in our prayers. Barb, Steve and Laura, your Mom was one of the very sweetest people I have ever known. Know she will always be with you! June, Kathy and I hope to hear from you soon! Love, Kathy and Carol “Doris was a wonderful friend to the entire Cunningham family. I knew her from church and school, Girl Scouts, stopping in at the Hobby Shop as a kid, and then in McDonnell’s Market on trips home. She had a real “the glass is half-full” approach to life, and I was always so happy to visit with her. Barb, Steve, Laura – your mother was a very special person. We are all thinking of you in this difficult time.

“ Dear Laura, Barb and Steve, Your mom was such a strong and wonderful lady! I always admired her raising all of you alone. Know that she is being held by our Savior and is safe and happy for all eternity. She will be waiting for all of you there. All my love and prayers as you move on in your lives without her here on earth.
