“ Our last days together, we talked about her childhood memories and things she did as a child. My wildest story is when she shared with us that she went to a carnival in the community where they lived and they had a boxing match going on and the gentlemen that were running it stated that if he could get two girls to box he would donate money to their school. My mom and another girl stepped up and put on the boxing gloves and then it started mom knocked her out. Of course the girl was o.k. but wow I never knew that about my mom. Gee what stories we were told. She was so beautiful and will be missed by all who knew her. Love you mom.

“Dot and her husband have been Godly servants of the Lord in their church for many years. Dot was a wonderful lady, only our Lord knows how much her husband and family will miss her. Her Christian walk and principles can be seen in her family. My prayers are extended to all the Yount family, especially my dear friend Carla in this loss.
