“ About thirteen years ago, my son, Jason DiBabbo, married into a beautiful family. Dorris was a member of this family. He was a man that you cared for at the first meeting. His gentle and kind heart made him so easy to love. I was so fortunate to have him in our family. Dorris will live in our hearts forever.

We all need to pray to Dorris for healing; he is most certainly with God.

My love and sympathy to the family that he had to leave behind. God bless you, and may He give you all peace.

*Love,
Amelia DiBabbo*
