“ I met Doug years ago when we worked auto parts together. That is where he met my sister Christine. He would always ask when Jason and I were going to get a bike to go riding. He always loved to ride and wanted to share his love of the road with others. If we wasn't talking about bikes we were talking about music. I was jealous of Doug because he could name the song before I could. He had a vast knowledge of music. I remembered the day he married my sister. I was so proud to call him my brother. Doug loved Christine and his kids Tori, Dusty, and Cheyenne. He loved his grandson Thomas and was so excited to meet his new grandson. I miss you Doug... Godspeed...I'll see you on the otherside.

“ Doug was what I would call a true rider. He loved talking about bikes, looking at bikes and riding bikes. I know how much he loved his family as much as he loved his bike. He had to marry his bride Christine here at Doc's. I know this was one of his home away from home and everyone knew him. He will be missed. The Doc's Harley-Davidson family will keep all of you in our prayers. Love always, Beth Ernst

“ I remember Doug for being the kind of Guy that wore his feelings on his sleeve. If he had something to say, he said it. Also, if he had a place to go for Poker Runs or just to get out and ride, he would lead the way because he knew all the roads to get there. If you had other ideas, he would keep bringing it up until you saw it his way. He will be missed by every Biker in the STL Region. His memory will forever live on in each and every one of us that had the opportunity to meet this man. I look forward to meeting him again and riding to one of the New places he has found in his after life.

Until we meet again, Ride to Live, Live to Ride Brother

“ Where do I start. I met Doug in High School we had several classes together our Junior year. After that for nearly 2 years we were inseparable. We always hung out listening to our favorite music, cruising on weekends, hanging at the mall, just having a great time. I got to know his Mom and Step Dad, Brother Brad, his Grandparents. It felt as if we were like brothers for a while. Later in life I moved off and didn't see him much. Lost touch and as life changed us we had families to take care of and I never got back to Missouri much. Even though only got to see him a few years ago. I thought about my old friend from back when we were younger. As a matter of fact the first tattoo I ever got was done by Doug when I was 18, so I guess I can say a part of him will always be with me. Fly on Thunderbird fly, keep those Harleys warmed up and hopefully one day will meet again brother.

“ I first met Doug when I brought his daughter and my best friend, Tori, by to see him during his hospital stay. I remember talking bout limp bizkit and pearl jam and how my dad raised me on the good music. He was easy to get along with and laid back. And so excited for Thomas to be a big brother. He will be missed but now hes rocking with the angels.
