“ She always had such caring ways. I've enjoyed visiting with her at the house the past few years. She would brag about the cat and dog keeping her company.

She was the best sitter for P.J. and of course, she spoiled him each time she watched him. He misses "Grandma Mandy", as he called her.

You have my deepest sympathy.

“ Drew, I can't express how sad I am that you're not with us anymore. It's just not fair that you were taken away from so many people who cared about you so deeply, or that you were shorted out of the great life that was on the horizon. Nobody should have to go through what you had to endure, but you toughed it out in the hardest of times and we all had faith in you. The memories I have of you I keep guarded and I'll cherish and remember them forever. My life will never be the same without you. Because of you I am a better, more compassionate person, and will strive to do the right thing in your memory no matter what the cost. God bless you, you will be missed every day.

“ To all of Drew's family and friends, my family would like to extend our deepest sympathy for your loss. In high school he was always a very easy going, funny guy. His smile could light up a room. I know through my cousin David, a dear close friend of Drew's, that Drew was always in good spirits and was all around a great friend. We will all miss him.

“ I have only one memory with you Drew. The day of my sister's wedding! We hung out all night at the apartment. He was family as soon as I meet him. This is such shocking news to me and at the same time unexplainably sad. I recognize we have a whole world to explore but at the sametime an unknown time to do so. Drew, you now get to see it from above. I will always remember that one day we had and share my sights on this world with you. Love you bro.

“ God's plan for us is not always known and sometimes it is difficult to understand - especially in a situation like this. Even though we never met Drew it is clear that made others happy, was an inspiration in many ways and he was loved. Ray and Gail - your family continues to be in our prayers.

“ Drew,
My heart aches, it aches for what might have been that we will never know. It aches for the pain you had to suffer, though you handled it so gallantly. It aches for your Mom, Dad and Michael for the hole it's left in their hearts and your family. I admired your courage and spirit through out this ordeal and will carry it with me forever.

Love, Uncle Mike

“ My heart is broken for the loss of Drew and being unable to reach out to you, Ray & Gail, during this time of deep, profound loss. I'm so sorry that I can't be at the funeral but I will be there in spirit. I will cherish my last memory of Drew, sitting on our patio last March drinking a beer. He was so talkitive and chatty and everyone was having a great time. I will always remember him with a smile on his face.
Love, Jill

“ I had the pleasure of meeting you once, but I feel I knew you so well since I found out so much about you through Sonny. With what I know, I find comfort in saying that in your short lifetime you impacted so many lives, including mine. God has taken you in and given you eternal life, we will truly miss you but find solace in knowing you are with Him and in a better place. God Bless Your Family and until we see each other again.....

“ Even though I have never met Drew personally, I have felt a special "closeness" to him. Over the years my friend Ginny, Drew's grandma, and I have loved to talk and brag about our grandchildren. I felt as if I knew Drew. It saddened me greatly when I first heard about his bout with leukemia -- and since that time I have committed myself to pray daily for God to be with him and his family in a special way. My deepest sympathy is with you at this time in the loss of Drew. I pray that God will give you strength and comfort -- and that you will always find joy in the wonderful memories that Drew has given you !

“ I am so very sorry for your loss, and my heart is heavy for all of you. Drew was a ray of sunshine in so many lives, and I will always remember that sweet smile. It was a pleasure to have him as a student, and to watch him grow into such a fine young man. I have such deep admiration for his courage in the face of his disease, and for his positive spirit. I cannot begin to express how deeply I admire you, Gail and Ray and Michael, for your devotion and nurturing of Drew during his many illnesses. He was blessed to have such a loving family, just as we were all blessed to have even a small part in his life. We know he is at peace now, and no doubt being welcomed and spoiled by grandparents now! I hope to be there for the service, weather permitting, but if I cannot, know that you are in my heart, in my thoughts, and in my prayers. God bless all of you, and may you find solace in the sweet memories of the fine person Drew was. Much love to all of you.....Mary

“ I moved to Hillsboro in 1979. Leo was among the first people I met. He went out of his way to make me feel welcome in my new community. Over the years, Leo always treated me with kindness and went out of his way to say hello or make me feel welcome when I visited Rotary. I share the loss of all of those who knew this wonderful man.
