

Dwayne Dickinson

April 6, 1960 - August 22, 2021

Dickinson, Dwayne, of St. Peters, Missouri, was born April 6, 1960 in St. Louis, Missouri to Spencer and Juanita (nee Ochs) Dickinson and entered into rest Sunday, August 22, 2021 at the age of 61 years.

He is preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Gary Dickinson.

He is survived by his wife, Cindi Ann (nee Deters) Dickinson, four (4) children, Melissa (Mike) Oxford, Jessica (Shane) Johnson, Travis Dickinson and Tyler Dickinson, twelve (12) grandchildren, Landen, Makayla, Jayda, Addison, Trinity, Peyton, Gabriella, Elliana, Whitney, Truett, Benjamin and Jameson with one more on the way, two (2) siblings, Lemoine Dickinson and Dwight Dickinson, along with numerous extended family and friends.

Dwayne was an avid hunter, fisherman, and gardener. He loved coaching and playing baseball, and he was a proud supporter of the Saint Louis Cardinals. Dwayne was also a Kirkwood native who wrestled back in the day. He enjoyed spending time with his grandkids and his dog Yadi. Dwayne had a great work ethic and belonged to the carpenters union. Although he had a competitive nature, Dwayne was a good friend and neighbor to everyone one he met. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ *I will dearly miss my little cousin! Even though I've lived out of state for many years we tried to stay in touch and see each other when I was in St. Louis. I was 12 when we found out he was on the way, hence him being my "little cousin". Rest In Peace my dear one.

“ You can credit Dwayne (or blame him if you're my parents) for my love of rock music and my choice to work in the music industry for 30 years. I remember being 5 (Dwayne was 15 at the time) and going to grandma and grandpa's house. I'd hang out w/ him and listen to Ted Nugent Cat Scratch Fever. Dwayne bought me that album for Christmas when I was 6. I think I prob wore the grooves out of that album. I also remember vividly about 4 or 5 years later hanging out w/ Dwayne, Robbie & Jeff and listening to Bad Company, Foreigner, & Styx at Thanksgiving. The love of rock music that he taught me led me to be in the concert promoting/bar business for 22 years and later in radio for 7. Dwayne was loved and will be missed dearly

“ Dwayne was my cousin, friend and hunting buddy on Uncle Henry's farm. He was a tough, strong man, with a gentle spirit and a heart of gold. We always seemed to gravitate to each other on family hunts and at family gatherings. Dwayne was always cheerful and his presence would always lift my spirits. I will miss him terribly, but thankfully, I have many wonderful memories to carry with me. My heart and love goes out to his entire family and to all who knew and loved him. James (Jim) A. Ochs
