“ I met Earl along with the other "MILL BOYS" when I moved to Morse mill in 1976. He was a great friend. He had a crazy German Shepard named Kong. Carry concrete blocks around or his favorite rocks. You could throw rocks in water puddles n Kong be past his eyes deep and come back with the same rock. Had a lot of laughs together over dog and lot of fun on big river. Say hey to chuckie dude.

“ I met Earl when I was a young teenager. What I will always remember about him is that he was hard working, generous, loved his family deeply, very respectful, loved his animals, very social and liked hanging out with friends. Though I moved away many years ago and took a different path in life, Earl will always be my friend. I remember his blue and white sun fire he was so meticulous over that car no one could get in with filthy shoes. Lol He was a very well kept and clean person. Thank you Earl for being my friend and keeping us all safe from those late night parties. God has blessed you my friend until we meet again. LaDonna
