Edna Lucille (nee Dodson) Miller-Forbes of Cedar Hill, Missouri, was born August 9, 1942 in St. Louis, Missouri to Edward and Nova (nee Wisdom) Dodson and entered into rest Thursday, April 30, 2026 in Cedar Hill, Missouri at the age of 83 years.

She is preceded in death by her parents Edward and Nova (nee Wisdom) Dodson; children, Lori Dotson, and Robert J. Pool Jr.; sisters, Faith Crabtree and Sue Giesler.

She is survived by her sons, Danny, wife Jennifer Forbes and Jason, wife Charlotte Forbes; grandchildren, Trisha Jones, Jason Fatch, Robert Pool III, Zackery Pool, Faith Pool, Burley Forbes, Olivia Forbes and Evan Forbes; great grandchildren, Nova Jones, Waylon Jones, Olivia Fatch, Stella Lee, Mason Pool, Kyler Oliver, Adelyn Gaynor, Kaelyn Gaynor, Hailie Pool and Olivia Pool; brother, Edward Dodson; numerous other family and friends.

Edna lived a life defined by service, generosity, and unwavering care for others. With a true servant's heart, she dedicated over thirty years as the lead volunteer at Feed My People, giving her time and energy to ensure those in need were never forgotten. She cherished her time spent as a nanny for the Olson family, caring for Alexa, Julia and Bruce. Her generosity knew no bounds if someone was hurting or struggling, Edna was there without hesitation. Anyone who visited, left with a full stomach and a bag of canned goods.

Above all else, Edna cherished her family, especially her beloved great-grandchildren, who brought her endless joy and pride. She found happiness in simple pleasures, including her trips to the casino affectionately known as “The Boat” also going thrift shopping, where she could relax and enjoy herself. Edna’s legacy is one of kindness, strength, and selflessness, leaving behind a lasting impact on everyone fortunate enough to know her.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Family and friends can review and share stories, photos and condolences online at www.stlfuneral.com and follow details of this event and others in the community at www.facebook.com/stlchapelhill.

“ I was her first husband We married in 1960 both 18 years old!
Our daughter Lorraine was born in 1961 at the Maternity Hospital in St Louis and our son Robert Jr. was born in 1962 at the Philadelphia Naval Hospital. We raised them as best we could for 7 years and then we got divorced! After that we both worked hard at raising them with many problems but finally got them to be productive adults!
Edna and I Both supported them the best we could for the rest of their lives!
Edna was my first love and gave me two great kids!
She will not be forgotten but may she now Rest in Peace after 83
years of life 🙏
