“ Steve, Kevin, Richard, Robert and family. I am so sorry to hear of aunt Edna's passing. The bond she shared with my mom and her brothers and sisters will forever be a comforting memory that will cause me to smile each time I think of her. I lift all of you in asking for God's comfort and peace during this time and in the days to come.
Love to all,
Hugh, Connie and Hope

KE

Mom,

I am so sorry that you couldn't take your last breath at your home as Dad did. It is sad that you were misled and abandoned in a place you always asked not to ever be placed in your senior years. I wish I could have done more for you than just weekly visits and meals from McDonalds.

I praise your caregivers and curse the souls of those who took away your "Golden Years" and left you to die alone and in poverty.

I LOVE YOU MOM,

thank you for teaching me to have a good heart and to care about others...First

Your Fried Chicken was pretty incredible too.

I will miss you so much.
