On Saturday, January 8, 2022 Liz Kory unexpectedly passed. She was brilliant, kind, and curious – a lover of nature, animals, and her nieces and nephews: but most of all, her husband, Richard Kory. The coolest and most admirable thing about Liz and Rich is that they never sweat the small stuff and really have such gratitude for what really matters in life, Family, Fun, Laughter, and the Great Outdoors! With everything that is happening in the world today, Liz and Rich always reminded us that all the crazy and negativity does not matter. At the end of the day, as long as you have love and family and a lake to fish in, with a few cold beers (beers for Rich and Diet Pepsi for Liz), and of course a dog by your side and a bunch of kids running around outside, that's all that matters. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

A Celebration of Life will take place at a later date with arrangements being held with Chapel Hill Mortuary. Memorial donations in lieu of flowers may be made to Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital, 1465 S Grand Blvd, St. Louis, MO 63104. Family and friends can review and share stories, photos and condolences online at www.stlfuneral.com and follow details of this event and others in the community at www.facebook.com/stlchapelhill.

“ Greg and I were so very sad to hear about Liz. She was such a lovely person. She reached out so easily to people and invited me in to chat many times. She had a sense of calm about her. I know she will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

“ What a wonderful person and friend. Liz was so easy going, and had a knack for making everyone feel at ease. She was a wonderful painter and the best co worker Rich could have asked for. I never in my life saw anyone paint a straight line like she could !!. Made it look so easy. Loved talking to her, and getting to know them both. Truly special people./ Rest in peace Liz.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Liz since I was a teen. No matter what we talked about, or what stage I was in my life, Liz could always find common ground. I always enjoyed our chats. I had a "peacock theme" for our wedding, and Liz gave me a unique albino peacock feather that I still have today (she also made my veil). She was so kind to all the kids, wanting to capture fun moments of them on her iPad. I can still hear my Ivy say "here comes Liz" when we would see her golf cart coming down the road. She will be missed. Rich, Brett and I send our thoughts & love to you. Your Cottage Farm friends are here for you.

“ Liz was a special person, and I was blessed to have her as a friend. She was a great listener as well as a great storyteller. She always had a friendly smile and a gentle and caring way about her that made everyone feel at ease. I will miss sitting with her around a fire, swimming at the river, or watching the sunset. But I'm sure I will always think of her and feel her presence when I see a beautiful sunset or the flowers blooming near her cabin. While there are many "characters" at CF, she was truly a person of character. My thoughts and prayers go out to Rich and all of her family.

“ Liz...I can't help but think of you driving the golf cart down the hill at CF with your beloved Jack running along side. You would stop by many of our cabins just to chat and I remember beautiful pictures you would show us on your iPad. I remember you enjoying pool time with your Diet Pepsi but sometimes you would enjoy your Gin and Squirt as we gathered on Summer nights! RIP Liz...you are going to be missed❤️

“ I love reading all these wonderful memories from all her friends. She was so loved. Thank you. Someone mentioned her wonderful laugh, or cackle, that described her so well. She was one of a kind, I loved her dearly and I will always carry all the wonderful memories of her forever. I love you Uncle Richard
