“ Libby was such a fun person and easy to become friends with. I went to Kirkwood High with her and she was a funny girl. I did say hello to her at work when I knew she was there. We just had our 50th high school reunion and I saw that she had passed. I was so saddened because I was hoping she would be there. Much love to her from Tammy Buschman I will miss her

“ Libby was a lover of animals and long-time supporter of the APA. Her support over the years helped thousands of homeless pets find homes, bringing joy and love not only to the animals, but to the families who adopted them. For this we are forever grateful. Please know our hearts are with your family during this tremendous loss.

“ Libby and I met back at Vic Tanny in Clayton many years ago. We went out to the “clubs” a few times. Fast forward and we’re neighbors! She was an expert gardener and I used to pick her brain about my meager attempts at growing stuff. I’m sure she rolled her eyes but she was very patient and helpful. She loved her Shelties and treated them like her children. They were all so beautiful and well behaved.

I miss hearing Nora’s excited barking and Libby’s telling her to come in.

You fought the good fight, Lib. I know we’ll meet again.

“ Libby’s love for her cousin Fred included me. She was a true blessing to me in these years since his passing. I feel so blessed to be included in the fabric of her life. God’s peace be with all who mourn her passing. Darice
