Ella was a loving daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt, and friend. She loved her family dearly and her grandchildren always brought a smile to her face. Her Kentucky roots always showed when watching the Kentucky Wildcats Basketball team but her St. Louisan showed when the St. Louis Cardinals Baseball team came on. Spending time with her late husband Aubrey was something she rarely got tired of, doing anything from fishing to painting his wood work and even swinging on the porch swing while singing to her grandkids. With her granddaughters she enjoyed “plaiding” their hair and painting their nails. Her cousin Ruth was her go to crafting buddy and she always enjoyed a good cup of coffee and something sweet while talking about anything that came to mind at the kitchen table. Friends and family always shared a good laugh when playing Rook with her. Ellas family will always have her kind words and smiles with them in their hearts. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.
