“ So many awesome memories of Eric. He always had a great ability to make me laugh no matter what the circumstance.

When we were kids we used to ride our bikes everywhere...to the citgo gas station down the street to buy candy or whatever we could afford, then one time we decided to ride all the way from his house on Hawkins to mine in the Hillsboro/Cedar Hill area. That started a whole new era of long trip bicycle rides for us.

We started a lawn mowing company together once, went camping a million times and used to beg our parents to spend the night every time we got together. All those years and I don't ever remember any arguments or disagreements...He always had a great grin on his face.

Love you, cousin. Rest peacefully
