Ernie was a loving husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, and friend. His faith was shown in everything he did. He loved sharing God's word and was a Lector and teacher for the RCIA with his long-time church, Our Lady Queen of Peace. Ernie took pride in being a Eucharistic Minister and all the groups he helped with or belonged to. Hunting and fishing were another way he loved to take a break. His family meant the world to him and he especially loved taking his wife (or anyone that would go) to Branson for his favorite magic shows and murder mysteries. The laughter that came from his game nights with family and friends will always be remembered. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
