“ West County Senior Center extends our deepest sympathy. Gene was a friend to many at the center. We will all miss his smile and friendship. Gene was a fixture on the dance floor each Friday while ballroom dance was offered. Such a great talent. He is sadly missed by the fellas he ate lunch with daily at the center. Gene will be missed by all. - Maria Brown- West County Senior Center

“ Dear Diane, I had the pleasure of knowing your Dad through ballroom dancing. He was such a gentle wonderful man. At times he recalled memories of dancing many years ago when there were more historical ballrooms in St Louis. So sorry to hear about his passing. You have my deepest sympathy!

“ Diane-- Mr. Gene was such a special guy. We're so very sorry. The boys and Al and I are going to miss him so much. Please know that we are always here for you. Never hesitate to knock on our door. Alex put a prayer request for both of you in at our church yesterday. Our family will be keeping him and you in our prayers.
