“ It always seemed to me that everybody loved Sparky.

He had a gentle smile, could always tell you a great story, and he had such such a welcoming personality. He loved his family and his friends and would do anything in the world to help them.

He also had a deep respect for God and found comfort in his church.

He will be deeply missed and yet there will be plenty of precious memories to hold onto.

I will always remember his smile and those blue eyes. He was a man of peace and was kind hearted in every way.

We will miss him for the moment, but we know that God gather his sons and daughters and invite them to His heavenly home
