They were her greatest pride and joy, and she cared for them more than anything on this earth. With a spunky spirit and a sharp sense of humor, she could light up any room—though she certainly had a feisty side when needed. Frances loved to color, read, and watch movies, always finding joy in the simple pleasures of life. A true foodie, she enjoyed exploring new places to eat and experiencing different flavors. She was also a woman of faith and was baptized in 2013 at Barnes Jewish Hospital. Frances will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

I miss Kathy so much; she was my friend. I met her years ago when our daughters did dancing. I miss talking with her and her sassy, funny remarks. I know she is at peace!
