“ Today I lost the love of my life. Frank struggled to even draw a breath this past week. I want to thank our friends and family for the support they have given me. I will carry on, but forever more there will be a whole in my heart. He is in a better place, and I know he is not struggling anymore. I was so fortunate to have him for 33 wonderful years and I have many memories to remember him by. You may be gone my darling, but you will never be forgotten. I will love you and miss you for the rest of my life. Your loving wife.
