“ Angie and family - I was deeply saddened to hear the news of Tom's passing. Tom was a good friend, great husband and father, and a superior carpenter. Tom, Angie and I spent most weekends together last year working on my home. We shared a lot of deep conversations about the passing of my wife and Tom was always there to listen and to offer support. As I sit and look around my beautiful home that you helped create, I can't stop thinking about you and Angie and all the hard work you guys did to help make my home beautiful. Although you never got the chance to meet my wife, Pam, in this world.....I know she was waiting for you at the gates of Heaven to thank you for all the hard work and dedication you put in to help make Hannah and my life better here on earth. Even though you had your own project going on at your home, you were always here on the weekends to help me.....I will never forget that!

You are a great man, husband and friend!

I will see you again in heaven, my friend!

God Bless you Angie and your family, you are in our prayers.

“ My precious brother was the kindness, most caring and giving person. He loved to fish from the time he could hold a fishing pole, loved his little dogs, they were his loyal companions, loved and enjoyed his friends and a good party, and his family meant the world to him. He contribution to this world will be missed terribly. His smile and love will be missed by us all. Rest peacefully in heaven now Tommy and be free at last....I love you little brother.

“ Tommy, there is not enough space nor can I find the correct words to express my sorrow. I feel for your family in this difficult time. You were in my wedding, shared lots of great times in our early 20"s and you always were there with a helping hand and a great big smile that would light up the darkest of days. I have numerous fond memories that include you. I will forever treasure them. Until we meet again

“ Words cant explain the feeling of loss we all have. Nothing can take the place of your loving soul. But the memories we have of you will keep our hearts warm and the stories we tell of you will keep smiles on our faces. The bond our family has is tested at times but will never be broken. On earth or in heaven we are always together, forever. I have always and will always love you Tommy...
