“ I have so many great memories of Spud that I will cherish for the rest of my life. Spud was extraordinary. He treated us Hanning kids like one of his own, that when you went to church you had better go see Spud either before or after. He would still call me Annie, gave the best hugs, told funny jokes and would check on us and always checked on us through grandma Lillian as we got older. My deepest condolences to you and all of Spuds family & friends.

“ We were saddened at the loss of this great man who touched so many lives and was such a blessing to the church family, and yet happy he was finally going home to be with the Lord and his beloved Thelma. Our prayers are with all the loved ones he left behind, and we hope it comforts you to know how loved and respected he was.

Cousin Uncle Spud was my Sunday School teacher so many years ago always looked forward to Sunday knowing he was the teacher he made it so interesting. Then as an adult we camped at Sinking Creek for years enjoyed visiting with him and Cousin Thelma he was a great story teller

“ When I moved away from home, every week, Spud would come up to my mom at church and put his arm around her to ask how I was doing. The fact that he always put others above himself is just a shining example of how much he loved Jesus. I'm sad for us left behind, but rejoicing that Spud is with Ms. Thelma and Jesus. Love you Warren fam! ❤️
