“ What a beautiful soul. I love you Glenda know you will be missed so much. You always gave me such great words of wisdom an always had a hug for me. Many a night I drove you Almeda and Marie home I had to take care of my dancers. I can still see us laughing and having so much fun. Thanks for being my friend and having one of the best daughters in the world. Carla I'm so sorry for what you are going through but I'm here for you.
